The One Seated on the Throne (Revelation 4:1-11)

He is the One on the throne (4:2)

He is radiant in a splendor that is difficult to put into words (4:3)

His essence as God is consistently affirmed (4:8)

He is—and should be—worshipped (4:11)

ESV Revelation 4: 11 "Worthy are you, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created."

The Lamb Standing, though Slain (Revelation 5:1-14)

He is likened to a lamb, standing though slain (5:6)

He is also the conquering lion (5:5)

He has seven horns and seven eyes (5:6)

He is—and should be—worshipped (5:9-10, 12)

ESV Revelation 5: 9 And they sang a new song, saying, "Worthy are you to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slain, and by your blood you ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation,¹⁰ and you have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth." ¹¹ Then I looked, and I heard around the throne and the living creatures and the elders the voice of many angels, numbering myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, ¹² saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!"
